Metal Branded Button on Fly

Functional holster pockets offer convenient storage for tools and accessories, keeping your essentials within easy reach while you work.

A spacious thigh pocket provides additional storage, perfect for carrying larger tools, a phone, or other necessities.

Two back pockets offer further storage options, designed for easy access and security.

The dedicated ruler pocket ensures you always have your measuring tool handy, ideal for precision work.

The knee pad pockets feature flaps for secure closure, allowing you to insert knee pads for added protection during tasks that require kneeling.

The back stretch panel enhances comfort and flexibility, allowing for a greater range of motion without compromising the fit.
